

Ceramic Studio Intern- Summer Camp

Start date: June 17, 2024

End date: August 30, 2024 (some flexibility on end date if Intern needs to begin college semester earlier)

Schedule: Monday-Friday, generally 9 am – 5 pm

Application deadline: May 15, 2024. Applications accepted on a rolling basis until position is filled.

The Center for Contemporary Art seeks a responsible Ceramic Studio Intern to assist with the summer camp program while gaining knowledge and hands-on experience in the fields of ceramics and youth art education. Intern will work alongside and be supervised by The Center's experienced ceramics teaching faculty, Ceramics Program Manager, and Ceramics Technicians.

Essential Job Functions

- Wedge and prepare clay, glazes and other materials as needed
- Load, unload, and fire kilns as instructed by Ceramics Program Manager.
- Clean-up wheels, tables, floors, sinks between each class
- Clean all surfaces and mop at the end of each day
- Label all student work with name and class number
- Organize finished projects for parents to pick up

Marginal Job Functions

- Work one-on-one with children to assist as needed
- Eat lunch with children/assist with monitoring children during their lunch break

Qualifications/Attributes

- Have basic ceramic experience and knowledge of and/or desire to learn wedging, centering and forming clay vessels using the wheel and hand-building, firing kilns, and studio maintenance.
 - Have experience and enjoy working with children
 - Be reliable, responsible, accountable, and have a positive attitude
 - Able to regularly lift 50 lbs. clay
-

Schedule & Salary

- Must be available to work from June 17 - August 30 2024. Flexible end date will be considered if applicant needs to begin or return for a college semester that begins prior to the end of August.
 - Approximately 40 hours per week. Some evenings required to adhere to kiln firing schedule.
 - Weekly gross stipend of $565.20
-

How to Apply

Please send a resume detailing job history and/or related volunteer experience to John Reinking, Ceramics Program Manager at jreinking@ccabedminster.org. You must include "Summer Ceramic Intern" in the subject of your email.

About The Center

A non-profit 501c3 organization, The Center for Contemporary Art (The Center) is driven by the desire to broaden, deepen and diversify participation among audiences; challenge and inspire students, teachers, artists, enthusiasts and members of the community through opportunity to study, experience and create the multiple languages of the visual arts; and create a culture of the highest standards and expectations for artistic exploration, interpretation and perception. The Center provides year-round art classes for adults and children, exhibitions and community partnership programs.

For more information about the summer art camp program, please visit <https://ccabedminster.org/summer-art-camps/>.

