

John Reinking

Curator Statement

Echoes of Abstraction brings together four ceramic artists whose work celebrates the robust aesthetic of the three dimensional ceramic form and its relationship to abstract repetition. Each artist's work represents a unique way of achieving its own visual tempo. The rhythm and repetition in these works create a mood of organized movement.