

Tina Opp

Bio

Tina Opp is a ceramic artist and beekeeper living in rural, southwest North Dakota with her husband Grady and their dog Cookie. She splits her time between the art studio and their bee business, TJO Bees. After earning a Masters degree in Agricultural Economics from University of Wyoming, Tina completed an Associates of Fine Arts at Casper College in Casper, Wyoming. She is a recent graduate of Cohorts.Art, which was named Ceramic Project of the Year by Ceramics Monthly. Her wood fired and wood/soda fired sculptures are inspired by human artifacts and the natural world, especially the world of bees.
